

MAYOR STEPHANIE RAWLINGS-BLAKE PRESENTS

Connections in the Community Community Resource Fair

Saturday, April 25, 2015

11:00 am – 3:00 pm

Shake and Bake Family Fun Center

1601 Pennsylvania Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland 21217

Visit more than 30 resource tables and vendors!

- Health information and resources
- Help for children with asthma
- Support for substance abuse treatment & recovery
- Job readiness assistance & pre-apprenticeship training
- Water bill assistance
- Foster care recruitment
- Fire safety and disaster preparedness
- 211 Maryland
- Voter registration
- ... and much more!

2 Free Hours of Bowling and Skating After Visiting TEN Exhibitors with Your Punch Card!

Children Must be Accompanied by an Adult.

Visit Upton Boxing for an Open House and Receive a Discounted Membership When You Show Your Resource Fair Punch-Card!

Shake & Bake

The Resource Fair has something for you!

For more information about the Resource Fair, call (410) 545-3355

After the Fair, to request City services, call 3-1-1, or to learn about other available services, call 2-1-1.

Shake & Bake

You are also invited to join Baltimore Health Commissioner,
Dr. Leana Wen for a Community Health Discussion

Wednesday, April 22 at 7 p.m. at Union Baptist Church
1219 Druid Hill Avenue