

Communications Intern

The Baltimore City Health Department seeks an intern for its active, fast-paced communications team. The Communications Intern will work with the Communications Director and Public Information Officer to promote public health in Baltimore and communicate Health Department messages to media outlets. This internship will consist of a minimum of 15 hours per week, with a preference for full-time, for 3 to 6 months. This is an unpaid position, but is a perfect opportunity for a student seeking graduation credit, volunteer hours, or practicum requirements and a great way to build your portfolio.

Candidate Requirements

- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Creativity
- Organization
- Attentiveness to detail
- Familiarity with social media
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team

Candidate Desirables

- The ideal candidate would be an undergraduate pursuing a degree in communications, public relations, marketing, journalism, or English
- Experience working with media, writing press materials, and graphic design preferred
- Ability to perform under tight deadlines

To apply

Send pdf versions of your resume and cover letter to Kelleigh Eastman (kelleigh.eastman@baltimorecity.gov). Please put "Communications Internship" in the subject line.

Catherine E. Pugh, Mayor, City of Baltimore
Leana Wen, M.D., M.Sc., Commissioner of Health

Updated May 2017

@Bmore_Healthy
@DrLeanaWen
@BaltimoreHealth
health.baltimorecity.gov